SCHUYLER HAR

HARTMAN
17 CEMETERY 92

March 15, 2000

Yesterday I made a trip to Putnam County, Indiana to see if I could find the Hartman Cemetery where Russell and Schuyler Hale are buried. I called the assessor's office and got directions before I left. I went south on 231 from Crawfordsville. I turned east on 850N which was the second road outside of Fincastle. Fincastle had about a dozen homes and an old brick church which was no longer in use. There was not even a stop sign for the town. 850N was a narrow gravel road with a lot of hills and valleys. I drove to the end of the road which was about 2 1/2 miles. I never saw any type of a Cemetery on either side of the road. There were only a few small run down houses on the road. People were living in the houses, but they needed repair and yard cleaning up. They had a lot of junk in the yard and around the houses. I turned around at the end of the road and headed back. I noticed a small sign on a fence that said "Hartman Cemetery 1792". It was a hand made sign. The entrance was a dirt "path" down a valley and up another incline which climbed and curved back toward the road that I was on. The "path" was about 1/4 mile long and was wooded on both sides. There was some gravel in the lower spots. I was glad that I had a SUV and not a car. At the top of the hill was a flat area with about an acre enclosed in a wire fence with a "farm gate" which was open. I could see possible 50 tombstones. This was a very isolated area and I was not comfortable being there. I left my car door open incase I had to make a quick exit. I found Russell Hale right away. His stone looked a lot like the bishop chess piece. It was about 6 feet tall, maybe the tallest there. The south side had the name and dates for Sarah wife of Russell. The north side of the stone is where Russell's information was most likely engraved is pretty much gone. I took several pictures and I hope that they come out. There were many Hartman stones.

I saw on for Sadler, which I took a picture of. In the 1880 Census, William Hale was 76 living with William and Susannah Sadler and was listed as father-in-law. They were counted in Carpentersville which is only a few miles from the Hartman Cemetery. Susannah was 34. I believe that this is William that married Mary Aker. I believe that Susannah was Jefferson and Schuyler's sister. The dates all work out. Several years ago I contacted the Health Department for Greencastle and Crawfordsville which are both county seats. I was not able to locate a death certificate for him. There are no records for the 1890 Census, so I do not know what happened to them. I had a strange feeling that he was somewhere in the Hartman Cemetery, but I never saw a stone. Many of the stones were so weathered that the names and dates were no longer readable.

I saw four graves in a row that looked as if someone had filled in the low spots. The ground was bare earth and there were old tombstone footers, but no markers. Two of the "dirt piles" had small had made wooden crosses stuck in the ground. Maybe this was an entire family? This spooked me quite a bit. Most likely these were hand dug graves. I thought at first someone had dug something up, but then I saw the crosses. I do not understand the old cement footers. The bare dirt was lower than the surrounding ground. Usually when you dig a hole there is a lot of extra earth. There normally is a mound until the earth settles back down. Two squirrels came out of the woods and about gave me a stroke! I heard a truck on the gravel lane, but did not see one. I hurried and found the markers for Schuyler, his wife and two children. You could read "Schuyler Hail" and all of the information very clearly. There was a yucca plant in the front of the stone, otherwise it was in excellent shape. Susan, his wife was buried as Susan wife of Schuyler Hale. The children's markers were almost completely non-readable. To see the name "Hail" on a stone that I know is definitely without doubt a direct relation, really put some reality to my search. I took some pictures and hurried out of there. I did not want to become part of the family plot! I fully expected to see a truck at the bottom of the hill. I figured that someone had seen me go up the path and they were waiting to see who it was. There was no one at the bottom. I had completely spooked myself. I wish I had spent more time looking at the information and the stones. I sure that there was a lot of "family" there, but I just did not know the names. I took a picture of an Oliver stone. Schuyler's wife's madden name was Oliver. I will need to research to see who the stone belonged to. I may see if I can get a copy of who all is buried there from the local library.

Dr. Paul A. Cundiff
556 N. Central Avenue
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Dr. Cundiff:

Yours of recent date at hand, and I am pleased indeed to learn of your plans to carry on the Cundiff family history search in a determined manner. There are many things that I would like to know about the Cundiffs; and trust we may be of mutual assistance in our desire to know more about them.

Your last paragraph overrates my progress, I believe. It was my opinion that your father and sister likely had considerable data, at least as regards the Kentucky branch, that I did not possess, for your father in his letter to me, stated that several years ago he prepared a family tree, "but some time ago my daughter was down to see me and asked me for to give it to her, and I did." Furthermore, your sister in a recent letter mentioned that you had "the Cundiff line traced to the one who came from England." She also stated that you had found quite a little information which she did not have.

What little information I have been able to compile in the few years in which I have been at it, was derived from Census Reports (one file in the Census Bureau, here in Washington); from the published County records in the Local History and Genealogical Section of the Library of Congress; the Military Records; and from many letters to those named Cundiff, from City Directories, etc. Your father and sister and my relatives in Somerset and elsewhere furnished much of the framework for the family history so far as I have it. I do not, however, have a complete Family Tree.

Your letter suggests that I might tell you about the surest places for information and something about my methods.

The Newberry Library in Chicago has an excellent Genealogical collection. Several contacts in Chicago have done some searching for me there, as apparently it has some material not available even in such an extensive Local History-Gen. Library as that in the C.L. here in the Capital City.

Some of the things I would like to know about the family history are: Was Richard Cundiff (died 1774) a son of Richard of Northumberland County, Va. (died 1723)? (Or possibly I am on the wrong track altogether). I believe your father had family tradition that John Cundiff (died in Ky.1862) was from Norfolk County, Va. (Your sister had it that he came from "Eastern Virginia.") What is the source of information that John Cundiff who married Sarah Hail was born on Nov. 29, 1789? Did this record also state the birthplace?

I have found progress slow; many to whom one applies for information show indifference.

2 - Dr. P. A. Cundiff.

As regards my "methods," there is little of value to say. I spend an evening or so a week thumbing thru innumerable volumes and records; before me I have a sheet ruled off with the family names in which I am interested - such as Mills, Cundiff, Hail, Moody, Dawson, Logan, etc. As I come across an item I make either a verbatim copy or abstract of it. These "records" are later sorted and classified by names, by states, counties, etc. I also keep a sort of file, by given (Christian) names of the principal lines. In this manner, I manage to build up gradually some semblance to an orderly record of the families in which I am working.

By the way, do you plan to confine your efforts solely to the Cundiff name - or do you also wish to get a record of the connections - such as Hail, Love, Moody, etc.?

At any, rate, I'd be pleased to hear from you from time to time, as to your progress - and if there's anything I can do at this end of the line, don't hesitate to call on me.

Sincerely yours,

Harry W. Mills

Harry W. Mills.

P. S. *-did your sister send you the Family Tree which your father had compiled? If you care to let me see it I shall take good care of it and return it as soon as I have looked over it. HWM

Dear Mr Condiff; Several years ago you wrote me about getting started on the genealogy of the Hendricks family, I was living in Cedar Rapids Iowa at that time, I am wondering just what luck you had on the Hendricks-Hughes families.

I came to the west coast a few days after Pearl Harbor with the U.S.Treasury Dept to supervise and Investigate Japanese business latter they sent the JAPS to camps and our jobs finished I then came to San Diego with a Aircraft Concern. It has been very nice for us as our son who graduated from Annapolis in 1933 and now a Commander in the Navy was able to see us several times he spent some 16 mo in the South Pacific in command of a Destroyer was Decorated twice Silver and Bronze Stars now on shore duty in Washington D.C. The other son is a Electrical Engineer graduate of State Uni off Iowa now in Cedar Rapids Iowa. Pop and Mon here this completes.the family.

Was very sorry to recently learn of Napier Adams death I usually heard from him at Xmas and having not heard last yeard I wrote to him his siter replied that he had passed away, I had several time tried to get him to write up a history of the Hendricks tribe was dint think he ever got to it.

I assume you were probably in the service would like to hear from you as to your whereabouts, I am addressing this to your father think that would be the best way to reach you.

Let me hear from you when you find the time.

Your very distant cousin

Some Thinks Jno Fathers was Name Daniel

John Hughes was born 7-9-1780 was married 5-30-1802 to Sebethe Hardester in Washington Co, Virginia.
she was born 1782 and died 2-2-1828
she is presumed to have died in Pulaski Co, Ky.
John married second on 9-11-1828
Sabra Stringer-

Nothing is know as to the second wife and do not know where she and John were married, John died 2-7-1834 but we do not know where some think he was living near Lexington Ky, A grand-daughter of John and Sebethe says John had two sister Betsy and Polly Polly is said to have married one John Claunch (the letter was poorly written but believe this is the ay it was spelled but it was written by a very old lady and it may not be correct spelled)

In Deed Record 13 Page 173 at Sommerset Ky on Oct 10 1845 there was filed a deed to the old Hughes farm, this is where I got the start on the children of the above, but for some reason it does not appear t have all the children but I have not personally read the record and it might tell more that I have.

John and Sebethe had if my record is correct 11 children to-wit

1. Nancy b 12-22-1803 d 5-11-1822 m 12-30-1819 Jno F Harbison d 7-18-22

2. Fletha Catherine b 8-27-1805 said to have married a Cox (John)

3. Polly b 4-23-1807 d 3-15-1885 m William Hendricks b 10-25-1801 and died Aug 1834 in Indiana, I have not been able to find a record of their marriage, (These were my great-grandparents) there were three children by Hendricks, Polly then married Johnathan Gross and raise a family by him, I can supply most of this record if interested.

4. Mariah b 12-15-1806 D 10-6-1859 m 1831 William Love, thier children, Sabra b 8-24-1839, John 8-15-1833, Joseph 9-7-1835 James Bowen 6-20-1837, Katie b 1840, Mary C 4-22-1841, William H 3-31-1841. Robert 1845, Daniel 1847. and Lizzie 6-15-1850 d 12-12-1926 married Silas H Cundiff.

5. Fannie b 12-12-1810 m Gideon s/o Thomas Hail no farther record

6. James b 1-3-1813 D 8-16-1822 or 28, no record

7. John Jr b 11-14-1814 m 9-11-1828 Sabra Baker, marriage date wrong. no farther record.

8. Daniel b 8-23-1820 m Celia Rainey no record further

9. Mary Elizabeth b 1-22-1818 D 12-31-1898 m 1-4-1838 William Hays in Hendricks County Indiana, William Hays was born 1-23-1815 and died 10-15-1862 in a hospital in Illiois while a soldier in the civil war, wife moved to Missouri and there died, thier children, Alexander b 2-7-1839 d 5-1891, William b 2-3-1841 d 3-12-1841, Daniel b 6-12-1842 d 8-20-1843, Hannah C. b 5-29-1848 d 11-24-1892 m Robt Stout, Nancy b 9-20-1850 m Abe Hawk, Sabra b 6-10-1853 m John McPeak, Mary E b 8-1-1855 d 6-11-1920 m Wm Kirby.

10. Sabra b 9-24-1818 m Joshua Thurman no record

11. Hannah b 5-16-1822 D 6-18-1822

By the second wife John Hughes and Sabra Stringer had three children.

Geo Washington b 9-10-1829, Henry Clay 5-2-1831, Grandville 4-3-1833.

(Some think Jno lived near Lexington Ky after 2nd marriage other think near Danville.) L.G.

NOTES

I was given the name of Jonas as one of the signers of the deed or named in the deed, I find no Jonas so I am inclined to believe it must be John Jr,

There is a James buried on the old lot on the famm, but one of the grandchildren of John and Sebethe says her Uncle James went to Kansas and that he visited them in Missouri, This need some adjustment.

This same party says her Aunt Sabra Thurman moved to Indiana.

She also says that she think her uncle Daniel started to Missouri and died near St Louis Mo, and his wife and children came on, but I can not locate them where she thought they lived.

It is believed that probably Grandville and Henry Clay settled in the Pecos valley in New Mexico but not of the old timers there knows of them know.

It is believed that Fannie Hail lived and died in Indiana, suggested location, Montgomery-Putman- Owen Counties, My great grandparents lived at Gosport.

Sabra Hughes probably married twice as we find a marriage to Peter McFall in 1824.presume she later married Thurman. ← this may be Sabra Thurman slip mother

(One day after the death of Jno Hughes in 1834 his wife Sabra married Peter McFall but if so this date is wrong should be 1834 or 24 or ?)

You will find another large family of Hughes descendants of one Hiram Hughes b 1791 in Carolina and came to Pulaski Co Ky early in the 1800. he married Racheal Masey in 1814, his children were Jeremiah, Henry, Elizabeth, Abner, Polly, Jacob, Kate, & Marion you will see some of these names are the same but if Hiram and our John were related it is not known, this Jerimiah was a blacksmith in Somerset, Abner married a Stringer, Polly a Smith, , Jacob a Swink, Kate a Richardson, Marion a Miss West, I give you these names as you might be confused by finding the same names and think they were of our line.

I believe some inquiry aroung Carpenterville in south Montgomery would disclose some Hail family never could get any answers out of them, There is a Chas Hughes near Bainbridge Ind that it was suggested I write but could get no reply,

John Hughes was granted about the year 1808 393 acres on Pitman creek in Pulaski Co, Records at Frankfort show grant issued to John Hughes and Daniel Mathews, Dont know ant thing about who Mathews was.

As I recall the deed recites one Mary C Hail daughter of Fannie Hail, should you on a trip to Somerset go thru this Indiana section check marriage records for the marriage of Mary C Hail.
You will note that there was a Russell Hail age 63 living in 1878 at or near Carpenterville Indiana as he made an affidavit for Polly this is possible the father of Mary C.

Some of Sabra Thurman sons may have served in the Civil war should you have a Civil war list for Indiana see if you have many Thurman it is possible to get free information from the Veterans Adm, or Pension Bureau, or Adjutant General office, I have been able to get a start by this method on some of my lines.

I have not done any thing on the Hughes line for about two years

O.U.Conwell, Cedar Rapids Iowa

Thought these note might give you a start some of my suggestion may be of little value, but we some time find a old bible or record where we never expected to, some one might have John old bible, if we could find it.

This information received from the Veterans Administration Washington, D.C. in a letter dtaed January 7,1937

The following information as found in the pension and bounty land claims in file under W.C. 24082 -

Saunders Executors to Stigall

This Articles of Bargain Sale and Conveyance made and concluded into this 9th day of March 1844 between Reuben Saunders and George W Saunders Jr Executors of the last Will and Testament of George W Saunders decd of the first part and Coleman Stigall of the County of Pulaski State of Kentucky of the second part. Witnesseth that whereas the said George W Saunders by his last Will and Testament authorized his Executors to sell and convey the lands hereinafter described and having made sale of the said lands in pursuance of said last Will and Testament of G W Saunders decd to the said Coleman Stigall for and in consideration of the sum of two thousand Dollars one half paid down and the other secured by notes with security in two installments of $500 each payable in one and two years the said party of the first part doth by these presents bargain sell alien enfeoff convey and confirm unto the said Coleman Stigall his heirs or assigns forever two certain tracts or parcels of land situate lying and being in the County of Pulaski on the Cumberland River at and near the mouth of Pitmans Creek (with the exceptions and reservations hereinafter made and set forth)

Thomas Dudley for $75, his right, interest and claim to the land which he held as a legatee in the estate of Josiah Maxey (Sr.), deceased, and Phebe Maxey.[1]

Josiah left Virginia for awhile and was located in the 1830 census of Pulaski Co., Ky., where his brothers Walter and Boze had married many years earlier. As mentioned above, Josiah was found in the personal property tax records of Franklin Co., Va., in 1840 and 1841, but Elizabeth was recorded as head of household in the 1840 census of Pulaski Co., Ky. It would appear that they were divorced, or in any case separated.

Elizabeth had been identified as a daughter in Jeremiah Ferguson's will dated 19 November 1828 and proved by witnesses on 26 January 1829. It provided that after his wife's death his property was to be divided among his children.[2] Elizabeth Maxey's brief will, dated 1 August 1842, made mention of her father's will and of her mother Jemima's recent death. Elizabeth appointed Christopher Hail (Hale) to act on her behalf for the benefit of her children (not named) and to collect and divide among them anything that was due her from her father's estate.[3] Elizabeth's daughter Jemima administered her mother's estate and was the main purchaser at the sale of her personal property held on 31 May 1843.[4]

It was noted that Josiah, age 70, was living alone in Franklin Co., Va., when the 1850 census was taken. When Josiah appeared at the Franklin County courthouse in 1850 to apply for the bounty land due him for his service during the War of 1812, he gave his age as 65. Yet in 1855 when he applied for additional bounty land under the new act, he stated his age was 72.

Josiah and Elizabeth seem to have had three sons and two daughters, based on the early census reports, but they have not all been proved due to the fact that there was also a Sarah Maxey (relationship not known) living in Pulaski County from 1830 who had children. Thus the multiplicity of Maxeys there frustrates identification.

Known children of Josiah and Elizabeth (Ferguson) Maxey:

Jeremiah (Jerry) Maxey, a son of Josiah and Elizabeth (Ferguson) Maxey, was born about 1826, probably in Pulaski Co., Ky., where his father was located as head of household in the 1830 census.

On 12 September 1844, in Pulaski County, he married Eliza Jane Baker, a daughter of James and Jenny Baker.

Good morning cousins!

My email from home forwards to work. If you have sent me a note in the past 24 hours, I will not see it until Monday. If I am not answering a request, please forgive me, and I will on Monday.

Jean - You have done a ton of work! I only have the time to look slowly every now and then. My job and two children keep me pretty busy. Some time I will bore you with the story of how I became interested in all of this research. I do have a few issues that might interest you. First, I do know the name Bullock. I found it once looking to tie the Nathan Hale lineage to ours. There was a Richard Hale active in MA about the same time our Captain was active in VA. This Richard was married to Mary BULLOCK and remained in MA until death. The records state that he is buried there. Someone has typed Richard into the IGI and made some assumptions. I saw this and thought that there might be a tie into our line, but there was not. I had always been hopeful that we could be related to Nathan, but I cannot find anything domestically that proves this. I know that we are somewhere and was hopeful that it was not all the way back to Adam.

I have been very lucky on my research. I am located in an area that was very Quaker/Puritan. Most of my family was Quaker and all of the "meeting notes" are located at Earlham College here in Richmond. They have a family research center. Would you believe that I found William and Susannah in the meeting notes! My guess is that they must have traveled with some Quaker or Puritan families to Pulaski County or maybe Maxey was Quaker or Puritan. Sometimes you can find complete lineages in the notes. There is a log cabin at the local museum that was in my family! I have very deep roots here, except for the Hale side. I did have the luck of my gg grandfather lived and died here. His obituary showed that he was buried in Putnam County next to his wife. I found most everything through him and his military records. I was also lucky that he went by the name of Schuyler and there was only another cousin in the family with that name.

Several years ago, I had some correspondences with an Edward Haile of VA. I call the local library and ended up talking to his wife in my Haile root search. She told me that he had done a lot of research and I should send him what I had. I did and he was of the Thomas Haile line. He verified the information that I had and told me of his logic that there must have been a Richard Haile Sr. He also told me that he was probably the only one who believed this. He had no proof or concrete evidence, just a hunch.

I did not know that the K&Q information had burned. I've seen several references to a book called Emigrants to VA. Have you reviewed this book?

Melanie - I can help you!

I went to Putnam County several years ago and did some research there. My gg grandfather died here, but was buried there next to his wife. He had moved to Putnam County with several cousins and became a farmer. His name was Wm Schuyler Hail and he moved with his cousins William and Russell. They were all from Pulaski County, KY and I wrote to the Historical Society. They responded with a document which was a typed copy of "R.B. Waddle, I - Genealogical notes from an ancient notebook". I have part of this copy and would be glad to mail you a copy of it if you will provide me with an address to send it to. I also have records of the Census and marriage records for Pulaski County. In the Waddle document it states that William Haile, married to Susan Maxey in 1795 had a 1st son named Christopher. It does not state that they had a son named William, but the father died young and William was given in marriage by his mother Susannah. This made sense to me. Susannah and Christopher were the executors of William's will, so I know it has to be true. This is the reason that I am so interested in the information that you have on him. I wrote to Kentucky Historical Society again to see where he was buried, and was not successful. Anyway, Christopher had a son named Russell that was born 1816 and died 3/24/1901. He moved to Putnam County and became a farmer. He died from Chronic Bronchitis at age 85 8m 14d. He was married to Sarah Hartman who was born 1814 and died 2/21/87. There was another son named Christopher, jr who married Elizabeth Hail (daughter of John Wesley Hail and Lucy Ann Hail). My gg grandfather is buried in the Hartman Cemetery in Putnam County (Fincastle), IN. I wonder if the name was after Sarah, Russell's wife????. The Census shows the households and has, so far, supported the information from the "ancient notebook".

I hope that this helps. The Haile, Hail, Hale lineage in Pulaski County gets confusing. They repeated the same names often in families. The dates and some of the children's names help a lot.

Did you know that there was a family reunion on July 9, 2000 in Pulaski County? I saw it on the internet. Wouldn't that be a hoot!!!!

Sincerely,

Cuz Tom

Hi Melanie,

Sorry I missed your call - I was gone to the grocery or drug store for a few minutes.

I finally got the tax list copied - I'm slow! (ha)

I went to Frankfort last week and was able to look up some things at the Archives. I found out they will copy cheaper than our local court house. I made copies for 25¢ a page. I think it cost more if they do the work. I want to go back soon and copy some deeds.

Here, I had a breakthrough on one line Martha Harrison, Thomas Hail wife was the daughter of Nancy Hail Kizzie Harrison. I sent for her 1st husband's military record and found her father & sister also marriage record of both marriages and death of both husbands. I couldn't believe all the data I received.

Hope you had a good visit with your family in Nashville. I certainly enjoyed our meeting and visiting the afternoon. Hope it was worth your time on the research. I felt like you got some data you needed.

This letter was evidently started some time ago & never got finished & in the mail.

Hope to hear from you soon

Sincerely

Joyce

Notes

HUSBAND - William Hail

Birth - Process of elimination in conjunction with other children of Stephen Hail, Sr.

Marriage - Bedford Co., VA marriage records.

Death - Susannah Hail is on the Pulaski Co., KY tax list, no land, 2 horses. William Hail is not on the 1820 or 1821 tax lists. He is found in 1819 with 2 horses.

The first appraisal of his estate was filed by John Yeates, WilliamVaught and Jacob Vaught on 3 May 1824. Listed in the inventory was one horse and one filly.

WIFE - Susannah Maxey

"Maxey's of Virginia" by Edyth Maxey Clark, page 547 - Listed as child of Josiah and Phebe Maxey.

Birth - 1830 Pulaski Co., KY census.

CHILD 1 - Polly Hail

Christopher Hail was the surety for the marriage of Polly Hail to Isaac Vaught. Since she married after the death of William Hail, Christopher, as her older brother, may have been acting in his stead.

Marriage - Pulaski County, KY marriage records.

Family Group Record

Husband William Hail

Wife Susannah Maxey

Notes

CHILD 2 - Nancy Hail

Possible daughter. Underage at time of marriage. William Hail surety.

CHILD 3 - Christopher Hail

Birth and Death - On every census record found, Christopher Hail's birthis shown as 1800. Information received in Nov. 1992, from Gregory L.Roberts, 3109 Huntersglen Ct., Chesapeake, VA 23323, included some records of Harry W. Mills, who appears to be a descendent of John and Sarah (Hail) Cundiff. The birth and death dates for Christopher are partof Mr. Mills' family records. From "Biographical Sketches of the Cox andHail Families" by Henry Jefferson Cox who was a grandson of Christopher: " I now have a letter, of date October 17, 1879, written by grandfather Hail to my mother and his son-in-law, while we were all living in Southwest Missouri' in which he closed with the following: 'Farewell to you, all, --children and grandchildren. This is my last letter ever to write.' Only a few months thereafter, he passed away..."

Pulaski County, Kentucky Deed Book 35, p. 567: "Know all men by thesepresents that whereas Christopher Hail did on the 6th day of Sept 1875 bargain and sell unto John E. Bryan a certain tract of land lying in Pulaski Co., KY and hereinafter described for the consideration of seven hundred dollars in hands paid to him, and whereas the said Hail did on the day afsd execute to said Bryan, a title bond for said land, and whereas the said Hail, in consideration of said title bond and the full payment of the purchase price to him did on the 20th day of May 1878 execute to said John E. Bryan, a deed of General Warranty for said tract of land, but whereas the said Christopher Hail died without acknowledging said deed. Now in order to convey to said John E. Bryan and absolute fee simple title to said tract of land we the undersigned, W.W. Hail, C.M.Hail and Elizabeth his wife, Amanda Bryan late Hail and M. W. Bryan her husband, Synthia A. Cox late Hail and _____ only children of Susannah Cox late Hail, only children grandchildren and heirs at law ofsaid Christopher Hail Decd....."

Henry Jefferson Cox, in his manuscript, says that Christopher Hail was the son of Stephen Hail, Jr. I disagree with this for several reasons .If Christopher Hail was born in 1800, as all the census records and Mr.Mills records indicate, and Stephen Hail and Polly Moody were married in 1803, as recorded in Bedford Co., VA records, then Christopher Hail was Stephen Hail's son by another marriage (of which nothing in anybody's records indicates), he was born out of wedlock, or he was someone else's son. Of all the Hail brothers, it seems most likely that he was William's son.

He was an administrator, along with Susannah Hail, of William's estate.He named daughters Susannah and Cynthia. He named a son William. On the1830 Pulaski Co., KY census, Susannah Hail is the head of the household. One of the males living in the household is age 30-40. Christopher Hail would have just been 30 in that year. Also, in Pulaski Co., KY Wills,Vol. 3-A, pp. 624-25, we find that Elizabeth Maxey, wife of Josiah Maxey (brother of Susannah Maxey Hail) appointed Christopher Hail to act on her behalf for the benefit of her children. Elizabeth Maxey would be Christopher's aunt by marriage and it seems likely that she would ask someone that closely related to attend to this matter.

CHILD 4 - Phebe Hail

Possible daughter. Underage at time of marriage. William Hail surety.

Probably born in Virginia.

CHILD 5 - William Hail

Birth - Mrs. Raymond Yekel, Rt. 2, Parma Idaho 83660. Mrs. Yekel is adescendent of William's daughter Margaret.

Marriage - Pulaski Co., KY marriage records. Consent was given by mother Susannah Hail.

On the 1850 Pulaski Co., KY census, Mary Hail is found as the head of household 302 on page 95. On page 94, there is William Hail in the household of David Swearingen. On the 1870 Pulaski Co., KY census we find the same situation. This time William Hail is on page 286 in the household of Wm. G. Saddler. Mary Hail is on page 289 in the household of William Aker who is, of course, one of her kinsmen.

CHILD 6 - Cynthia Hail

Consent for marriage given by mother Susannah Hail.

"Biographical Sketches of the Cox and Hail Families: by Henry Jefferson Cox in the Pulaski Co. KY Historical Society Library: " Grandfather Hail had...also one sister, Cynthia, for whom my mother was named."

Family Group Record

Husband	William Hail
Wife	Susannah Maxey

Notes

"Biographical Sketches of the Cox and Hail Families" by Henry Jefferson Cox in the Pulaski Co., KY Historical Society Library: " Grandfather Hail had two brothers Bill and Russell..."

By 1842 Russell and Sarah Hail were living in Franklin Twnship, Putnam Co., IN. On the census, page 374, line 40 is Russell Hail age 34 b. KY,Sarah Hail age 35 b. VA, Eliza J. Hail age 8 b. IN, Elizabeth A. Hail age5 b. IN. and Margaret E. Hail age 4 b. IN.

Notes

HUSBAND - Christopher Hail

Birth and Death - On every census record found, Christopher Hail's birthis shown as 1800. Information received in Nov. 1992, from Gregory L.Roberts, 3109 Huntersglen Ct., Chesapeake, VA 23323, included some records of Harry W. Mills, who appears to be a descendent of John and Sarah (Hail) Cundiff. The birth and death dates for Christopher are partof Mr. Mills' family records. From "Biographical Sketches of the Cox andHail Families" by Henry Jefferson Cox who was a grandson of Christopher: " I now have a letter, of date October 17, 1879, written by grandfather Hail to my mother and his son-in-law, while we were all living in Southwest Missouri' in which he closed with the following: 'Farewell to you, all, --children and grandchildren. This is my last letter ever to write.' Only a few months thereafter, he passed away..."

Pulaski County, Kentucky Deed Book 35, p. 567: "Know all men by thesepresents that whereas Christopher Hail did on the 6th day of Sept 1875 bargain and sell unto John E. Bryan a certain tract of land lying in Pulaski Co., KY and hereinafter described for the consideration of seven hundred dollars in hands paid to him, and whereas the said Hail did on the day afsd execute to said Bryan, a title bond for said land, and whereas the said Hail, in consideration of said title bond and the full payment of the purchase price to him did on the 20th day of May 1878 execute to said John E. Bryan, a deed of General Warranty for said tract of land, but whereas the said Christopher Hail died without acknowledging said deed. Now in order to convey to said John E. Bryan and absolute fee simple title to said tract of land we the undersigned, W.W. Hail, C.M.Hail and Elizabeth his wife, Amanda Bryan late Hail and M. W. Bryan her husband, Synthia A. Cox late Hail and _____ only children of Susannah Cox late Hail, only children grandchildren and heirs at law ofsaid Christopher Hail Decd....."

Henry Jefferson Cox, in his manuscript, says that Christopher Hail was the son of Stephen Hail, Jr. I disagree with this for several reasons .If Christopher Hail was born in 1800, as all the census records and Mr.Mills records indicate, and Stephen Hail and Polly Moody were married in 1803, as recorded in Bedford Co., VA records, then Christopher Hail was Stephen Hail's son by another marriage (of which nothing in anybody's records indicates), he was born out of wedlock, or he was someone else's son. Of all the Hail brothers, it seems most likely that he was William's son.

He was an administrator, along with Susannah Hail, of William's estate.He named daughters Susannah and Cynthia. He named a son William. On the1830 Pulaski Co., KY census, Susannah Hail is the head of the household. One of the males living in the household is age 30-40. Christopher Hail would have just been 30 in that year. Also, in Pulaski Co., KY Wills,Vol. 3-A, pp. 624-25, we find that Elizabeth Maxey, wife of Josiah Maxey (brother of Susannah Maxey Hail) appointed Christopher Hail to act on her behalf for the benefit of her children. Elizabeth Maxey would be Christopher's aunt by marriage and it seems likely that she would ask someone that closely related to attend to this matter.

WIFE - Eleanor Neal

November term of court 1826 - John Tomlinson, admr of estate of CharlesNeal, dec'd...to divide the slaves of Charles Neal - the legatees all present, William Neal excepted...Ellender Neal to have the negro girl Mariah..." (Pulaski County, Kentucky WB 2-329)

Dec 29, 1829, Wm. Smith and Delila his wife sold to Eleanor Neal for $150quit claim to 3 shares or lots of land that Charles Neal resided on -interest we hold by heirship, the share purchased from George Dungans and Nancy his wife and the share

CHILD 2 - William Wade Hail

Birth & Death - "Ancestors of Flora Ellen Price" by Wilma Sutton Cogdell in the Pulaski County, KY Historical Society Library.

Marriage - Denzil Mauldin, P.O. Box 690, Valdez, Alaska 99686-0690.

William Wade Hail was a merchant and farmer.

"Biographical Sketches of the Cox and Hail Families" by Henry JeffersonCox: "Uncle Will Hail, my mother's eldest brother, was born in Pulaski County, Kentucky, near Somerset; and continued to live there in the County. He owned a large 500 acre farm, four miles from Somerset, on which he and wife, Aunt Margaret Gragg Hail, lived for a number of years; and until her death in 1883. To him and Aunt Margaret were born nine children. Following Aunt Margaret's death, Uncle Will moved from the farm to Somerset, that he might have better educational advantages for his children. After moving to town, Uncle Will engaged in Hardware and Furniture Business; and was interested for a time in a Flour Milling Company, of which he was President. He also continued to operate his farm. Shortly after moving to town Uncle Will married Mrs. Mary J.Murfry, and approximately 12 years thereafter, 1895, Uncle Will passed away."

Do not know if there were children by William Wade Hail's second marriage.

CHILD 3 - Cynthia Ann Hail

"Biographical Sketches of the Cox and Hail Families" by Henry Jefferson Cox.

After the death of William Perry Cox, late in December, 1870, Cynthia Ann and her six children moved to Southwest Missouri; and purchased a farmhome of 80 acres of land, two miles west of Marionville, in Lawrence County; and only one mile north of the home of Marcellus Cox.

Cynthia Ann finally sold her farm, bought a house and lot at Marionville,and lived there for several years. She spent her last few years on a farm four miles west of Marionville, with son Dan and wife, Alice, where she passed away, after a short illness, 1913, aged 78, and was interred in Marionville Cemetery. Dear Melanie,

I have read over your letter and the enclosures you sent on your Hail/Haile family several times. I do agree that you have very strong evidence that Christopher was a son of William & Susannah (Maxey) Hail and not of Stephen, Jr.

If a man died intestate his wife was usually appointed to serve as administrator. Quite often if she was unable to do this (for health reasons, etc.) she relinquished this right to her eldest son or son-in-law. Also, it's not uncommon for a widow and son to serve together.

I have a suggestion that might help you prove it. See if you can secure the microfilm (through a branch of the Mormon library if you're near one) of the Court Order Books* (sometimes referred to as Minute books) of the period in which he died. (They may or may not be indexed, so you have to go through each page.) Quite often heirs would be named if there were slaves or other valuable property to be disposed of. It's the only way I've proved relationships in many cases.

I have heard from very few people who were descended from Hail/Maxey marriages. The few I did were so long ago -- I've been doing this for 20 years -- I can't remember who they were. I have a few pages of marriages, abstracts of wills (Francis, Richard, Stephen, Sr.), etc., so I know who you're talking about to some extent. There were a lot of men with the Hail name in Bedford & Franklin Counties, so you just about have to research every one.

Sorry I can't be of more help, but good luck with your search.

Sincerely,
Edythe
Edythe Maxey Clark

P.S. Susannah Maxey was a daughter of Josiah & Phebe (?) Maxey, and not of his first wife.

* the appointment of administrator(s) is usually in these books.

His maternal grandfather, Elza Rucker, was born near Richmond, Va., came to Kentucky after having served in the war of 1812, under Col. Croghan, at Fort Sandusky, and died here in 1855. Alfred Wade was born in 1825, was a merchant and farmer, and died in 1848. Dr. John H. Wade was reared in Catlettsburg, to which place his widowed mother had removed about the year 1851, and at which place she still lives. In his childhood years the Doctor was taken care of by an uncle, John Clark, a Scotchman by birth, a merchant and a pioneer of eastern Kentucky, whose death took place in December, 1863. The Doctor received his elementary education in the schools of Catlettsburg, and read medicine there under J. D. Kincaid. Subsequently, in 1872, he graduated from the Louisville Medical College; he began practice on the Big Sandy, and in 1879 settled in Ashland, Boyd County, where he has since been actively engaged in his profession. He manufactured salt five miles from Somerset for a number of years, and for many years was engaged in banking. He represented Pulaski County in both houses of the Legislature for four or five terms, and took an active part in educational matters. He was regarded as one of the best citizens of eastern and southern Kentucky; he died in 1868. Mary (Newell) Wait, a native of Pulaski County, is a daughter of John M. Newell, a native of Virginia. G. W. Wait is the second of six children, viz: John, George W., Frank, M. F., H. C. and Maggie. Mr. Wait received his education at the common schools and at the Masonic College, Somerset, Ky. The Two Hail Pre-Civil War Houses on Maple Street

Several years ago I made two deed book studies of houses on the east side of Maple. One included houses from Limestone Street to Oak Street and the other, the houses from Oak Street to Mt. Vernon Street. At that time I learned several interesting facts about the Hails who owned these two earliest houses on the street.

Recently my attention was called to a book on the Hail Family in the Pulaski Historical Society Library and with the help of a present-day descendant of that family, I learned additional interesting things about the entwining kinship of this family. Here is a summary as it applies to the above two houses.

The owners of both houses were descendants of four of the nine sons and daughters of Stephen Hail and his wife, Nancy Arthur, who came to Pulaski County from Virginia around 1806, some nine years before Stephen's death.

These four were Anna Hail Woodcock, Thomas Hail, James Lewis Hail and Benjamin Hail.

1850-The present Vernon Tyree House, 203 North Maple Street, was built by David Moore and his wife, Susan Hail Moore. Susan was the daughter of James Lewis Hail.

1852-After the death of David Moore, the house was sold to Silas Hail and John Miles Hail. Silas was the son of Thomas Hail and John M. was the son of Benjamin Hail. John M. was Silas' first cousin and also his son-in-law as John M. was married to Melissa, the daughter of Silas and his first wife, Polly Woodcock.

Silas and Polly also were first cousins, as Polly was the daughter of Anna Hail Woodcock and Robert Woodcock. After Polly's death in 1852, Silas was married in 1854 to Catherine Harrison, the graaddaughter of James Lewis Hail and the niece of Susan Moore. Catherine and Silas built their new house at the N.W. corner of Mt. Vernon and College Street, the location of the present City of Somerset Utilities Building parking lot. Here they lived with their young children until 1865 when they moved to their farm.

After Silas' death, Catherine bought a house at the S.E. corner of Maple and Limestone Streets in 1893. Here she lived with Silas' sister, Jennie, for many years. Catherine died in 1920 and her only remaining son, Charlie, a widower, who was living with her in 1920, died in 1925. He was Henry S. Hail's father.

1865-After living in the former David Moore house since buying it with his father-in-law Silas in 1852, John M. and wife Melissa and their children moved to Stanford, Kentucky in 1865. They sold the Maple Street house to Christopher Hale (not related to above Hails) and wife Elizabeth Hail who was the eldest daughter of John Wesley Hail, grandson of James Lewis Hail. John Wesley Hail, orphaned at an early age made his childhood home with David Moore and wife Susan, John Wesley's aunt.

1875- O.H. Waddle and his wife Mary Austin Hail, also a daughter of John Wesley Hail, bought the lot south of Christopher and Elizabeth's house (at this time the house was owned by John Wesley Hail) and here they built their house on the N.E. corner of Maple & Oak Streets. O.H. Waddle was the grandson of Mahala Hail and her husband Oddlphus Ham for whom O.H. Waddle was named. Mahala was the daughter of Benjamin Hail and a sister of John M. Hail.

The W.H. Nichols house, 135 North Maple, in the block south of Oak Street was built by John Wesley Hail in the mid 1850's. The Hails lived here until his death in 1895. His wife Lucy died in 1906. After this time, the house had several owners. In 1944 W.R. Nichols bought the house ~~and his family still makes~~ its home here today.

For many years, Silas M. Hail and John Wesley Hail were partners in a mercantile store on South Main Street across from the present Beecher House. In Mrs. Tibbal's book she tells of hearing about a shipment of shoes which the Hails had ordered for their store and which failed to arrive. This was during the time of the Civil War. After the Battle of Dutton Hill, a number of the dead Union soldiers were found to be wearing these new shoes with the Hail's store label printed in the shoes.

Deed Book Study

Early Houses on East Side of Maple Street and North Side of Oak Street

Houses on this block were built on land which had belonged to William Fox during the first half of the nineteenth century. Fox sold to David Moore and to John J. Frazure eight acres northeast of the original "Town of Somerset" which is now the block surrounded by Maple on the west, Oak on the south, College on the east and Limestone on the north. Moore bought the southern four acres extending as far north as a line even with present Cherry Street and Frazure bought the northern one-half of the block, a number of years after Moore bought the southern one-half.(DB 14, pg. 52; DB 16, pg. 590)

In an 1850 deed, David Moore tells about the house he is building which is almost completed, except for the construction of the stone chimneys. This house, with its big stone chimneys on either end, is the present home of the Vernon Tyree family. David Moore died before the new house was completed. Silas M. Hail and his son-in-law, John M. Hail, who were Moore's friends, bought the property.(DB 14, pg. 52; DB 19, pg. 436)

In 1865 the Hails sold the house and four acres to Christopher M. Hale.(DB 22, pg. 200) Ten years later, at a special sale, Christopher M. Hale's father-in-law, John Wesley Hail, bought the northern one-half of this lot, including this house. Another son-in-law of John Wesley Hail, O.H. Waddle, bought the southern one-half of the lot bordering on Oak Street.(DB 26, pg. 18; DB 29, pg. 221). The Christopher Hale family continued to live in the former David Moore house for many years, as John Wesley Hail, the owner, lived in the next block south of Oak Street on Maple Street, where the Nichols live now. In 1899 O.H. Waddle bought the Moore house and sold it to his eldest son, Edwin M. Waddle and his wife, Fannie. It belonged to this family for almost seventy years (CD 2, pg. 80; DB 48, pg. 551). In 1968 the heirs of Edwin Waddle, including his daughter, Ella Mae Newton, sold the property to Horace G. Wilson and wife Glenda (DB 286, pg. 139) and in 1976 the Wilsons sold the house to Vernon Tyree and wife, Eula, who live here now (DB 286, pg. 139 DB 360, pg.139).

Just north of the former Ed. Waddle house stands the house where Waddle's son, Cornelius O. Waddle and his wife Beulah and sons Lewis "Buster" and Cornelius "Dick" lived for twenty years. Edwin Waddle had sold the lot north of his house in 1904 to Ellis Williams and wife Gertrude (DB 58, pg. 80). Williams moved to Louisville and sold the property in 1911 to A.C. Peffer (DB 41, pg. 70) and in 1919 the Peffers sold it to Neil Waddle (DB 88, pg. 79). In 1939 when Waddle, a railroad employee, was transferred to Ludlow, Ky., the Waddles sold the house to James F. Prather, Jr. and wife Maxine (DB 116, pg. 390). After living here for about fourteen years, the Prathers bought the former Will Waddle house on College Street in 1953 and sold this house to Dennie Gooch, Jr. and Dennie Gooch, Sr. (DB 191, pg. 57). They sold the property in 1957 to Horace G. Wilson and wife Glenda, the present residants of the house.

In 1860 John M. Hail, who was the owner of the David Moore house, and four acres surrounding it, bought the remaining four acres of the block north of his property from John J. Frazure (DB 19, pg. 494). Thus for several years John M. Hail owned the entire Block.

In 1867 Hail sold a lot north of the David Moore land to Mary A. Turpen and husband Wiley Turpen and deed states "One and three-fourth acre lot,being part of four acres conveyed to me by John J. Frazure" (DB 22, pg. 485). In 1871 the Turpens sold the property to H.G. Trimble and W.H. Cundiff. In 1873 Trimble sold his one-half to Charity

Silvers and husband John Silvers, Jr. In 1879 Trimble bought, at a sheriff's sale, the one-half he had sold to Silvers. In 1887 Trimble and Cundiff sold the house and lot to W.H. Logan, who was Trimble's father-in-law (DB 33, pg. 45). Some thirteen years later, 1892, Logan's widow Nancy and other W.H. Logan heirs sold the house to Mattie L. Logan, wife of V.K. Logan, son of W.H. Logan. In 1897, at a Commissioner's sale, Fred P. Curtis bought the western one-half of the property, including the house, and C.S. Porter bought the eastern one-half of the lot bordering on College Street (DB 48, pg.535; 52, pg.171). Fred P. Curtis and family lived here while their new house north of this property was being built. In 1902 Curtis sold the house to Flonnie Catron (DB 52, pg.365). In 1913 the administrator of the estate of Flonnie Catron sold the property to M.L. Gover and deed states "being same property now occupied by Mrs. H.G.Trimble and known as the Flonnie Catron homeplace" (DB 74, pg. 409). After buying the former William A. Waddle house on Oak Street, M.L. Gover and wife Mallie sold the house in 1920 to Bea Whitis and he sold it to O.L. Conyers and V.B. Stone in 1924. Stone sold his interest in the property to Conyers in 1927 (DB 99, pg. 190) and(DB 108, pg. 394). W.D. Gover acquired the property in 1935 and rented it for a number of years to Ben F. Robinson, the manager of the first A&P Supermarket in Somerset. After Robinson was transferred to Lexington, W.D. Gover sold the house in 1945 to Dock McCart and wife Estella (DB 154, pg.44). The The McCarts sold the property in 1951 to George W. Green (DB 179, pg. 259). Nancy Green, widow of George Green, continues to live here today.

Back in 1865 John M. Hail and wife Melissa sold about two and one-half acres of land they had bought from J.J. Frazure to China Jane Hopper. The Hoppers built a house at the corner of Maple and Limestone Streets (DB 22, pg. 169). Twenty-two years later, the Hopper property along Maple was sold at a Commissioner's Sale to James Elliot (CD 1 pg. 46). Elliot sold it to John S. May in 1889. May sold the house to John H. Waddle (DB 40, pg.239), who sold it to Fred P. Curtis (DB 46, pg.140). These sales were made in 1890. This lot extended 159' along Maple (then called Crab Orchard Street) and east - wardly 147' along Limestone (then called Hopper Street or Seventh Street). In 1893 Curtis and his wife Juey sold the house and lot to Catherine J.Hail*, the widow of Silas M. Hail (DB 45, pg. 88). Curtis sold only 89' along Maple including the house, but kept the other 70' south of house as a site for his new house. In 1923 Charles L. Hail, Catherine Hail's only heir, sold the property to J. Frank Barnett (DB 93, pg. 48). The following year Barnett sold the house and lot to Fred M. Curtis, son of Fred P. Curtis (DB 94, pg. 141). This family lived here for the next twenty years. After moving to London, Ky., Curtis and his wife, Daisy, Sold the property to L.B. Guffey in 1944 (DB 136, pg. 5). The following year Guffey sold it to W.H. Hodge and Hodge sold it in 1948 to Elizabeth and William Tuggle (DB 159, pg. 125). In 1951 James A.Corder and wife, Elizabeth, bought the property from Elizabeth Tuggle and the Corders have lived here since that time.

As mentioned earlier, Fred P. Curtis built the house just south of the Corder house sometime between 1897 and 1902. Here the Curtis family lived for about thirty years. In 1928 Beecher Smith bought the house (CD 6, pg. 131) and then sold it seventeen years later to Hugh H. Logan (DB 140, pg. 312). The following year Logan sold it to Howard Colyer and wife Julia (DB 200, pg.272). In 1955 Julia Colyer, now a widow, sold the house to Lola Hail who sold it that same year to Jessie W. Wilson and wife, Edith Mae (DB 200, pg. 275; DB 257, pg. 3).The Wilsons lived here for twenty-five years. In 1980 Edith Wilson, widow, sold the property to Elaine Smith Prewitt and Portia Smith Pennington. The lot was 70' along Maple and 147' deep (DB 404, pg.397).In 1985, Portia & her husband Tony Pennington sold their ½ of property to Elaine Smith Prewitt (DB 437,pg. 67).

*For more information concerning Catherine Hail see attached sheet at the end of this study.

In 1918 the house south of the Curtis house became the home of the Curtis' daughter. Grace, and her husband Charles Fred Hunt and family. The lot on which this house was built was once a part of the Logan property to the south. When Curtis sold the Logan property in 1902, he sold this lot to Georgia Swain (DB 52, pg. 148) who built the house and then sold it in 1908 to Miranda Samuels (DB 64, pg.179). In 1914 (DB 75, pg.150) M. Samuels, husband of the late Miranda Samuels, sold the property to W.H. Garner and wife Effie (DB 82, pg.199).They moved to Lawrenceburg and sold it in 1918 to Grace Hunt (DB 99, pg.605). The Hunts owned the house for thirty-two years.In 1950 (DB 172, pg.557) Grace and Fred Hunt sold the property to Rose Stone, a widow, and the following year she sold it to Jessie W. Wilson and wife Edith (DB 178, pg.496). The next year the Wilsons sold the house to Paul Gravely and wife, Marie (DB 184, pg.2). After owning the house for twenty-four years, Marie Gravely, widow, now of Jackson, Ky,. sold it to Glen Gover, Jr. and in 1978 he sold the property to Cliff and Lynn Appleby (DB 367, pg.436; DB 383, pg.392). Ten years later, in 1988, the Applebys sold it to Gene F. Sheehan and wife Joan (DB 470, pg.426).

The last house on this block of Maple is the one which stands on the north east corner of Maple and Oak Streets. It was built on the western part of the two acre lot which O.H. Waddle bought in 1875 at a Sheriff's sale (DB 27, pg.16). This lot was the southern one-half of the four acre tract which David Moore had purchased from William Fox prior to 1850. There was a cottage on this part of the lot which fact was mentioned in one of the deeds. Moore and his family apparently lived here while he was building his new house and here his wife Susan continued to live after Moore's death. There were two young women named Harrison, nieces who were making their home with Susan, and one of them, Catherine, later became the second wife of Silas M. Hail, after the death of his first wife, Polly Woodcock. Catherine Hail, widow of Silas Hail, was the same one who bought the house at the northern end of this block at Maple and Limestone Streets in 1893.

Deeds do not reveal when O.H. Waddle and his wife Mary Austin Hail Waddle built the house on the northeast corner of Maple and Oak. This house became the home of the family for the next seventy years. In 1945 the property was sold by son, Edwin M. and other Waddle heirs to W.T. Cox. Cox sold it that same year to Albert Kiser, who sold it to Lillian Vaughn (DB 140, pg.549, 552; DB 141, pg.44). In 1947 Lillian Vaughn sold it to William Raymond Nichols (DB 154, pg.430) who owned it, or at least part of it, for the next thirty years. For a number of these years the V.M. Lester family rented it for their "Little Inn" a popular boarding house.In 1977 W.R. Nichols and wife Lena of Eubank and E. Lee Dye and wife Josephine (the latter couple was living in the house at this time) sold the property to Wilbur R. Norfleet and wife Faustine E. Norfleet (DB 373, pg.378). The Norfleets extensively repaired and renovated the house which has become their home.

It is interesting to note that four of the six houses on the north side of Oak Street were built by relatives of O.H. Waddle on his former land. As mentioned in an earlier Deed Book Study, Waddle had sold the eastern one-half of his acreage to Julia Murphy in 1880. Three years later,she sold the house she'd built facing College Street, to the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church (North) and that same day she sold a lot back of her house and along Oak Street to O.H. Waddle's brother, William A. Waddle (DB 34, pg.72). He built the house where Oris Meece lives today. In 1904 O.H. Waddle bought from his brother the area on Oak Street west of William A. Waddle's house and gave this lot to his daughter, Katherine (DB 54, pg.178). Katherine and her husband, Edwin P. Morrow, built their house here. The lot west of the Morrow house became the roperty of O.H. Waddle's second son, Robert B. Waddle in 1906. He and his wife, Edna Ramsey Waddle built the house where Bob Bruce Waddle,Jr's widow Lucille, now Lucille Groff, and her husband, Pete Groff, live today (DB 58, pg.159). Directly back of the O.H. Waddle house is the house built by Waddle's granddaughter, Katherine Stoms McEwen and her husband, Max McEwen. Now it is the home of O.H. Waddle's great granddaughter, Sally K. Waddle McGehee and her husband, Thomas McGehee and their daughter, Mary Martha.

The other two houses on Oak (brick houses) were built by Alonzo Carter. After Beecher Smith bought the former parsonage on the northwest corner of College and Oak, he sold the area back of the parsonage to Alonzo Carter in 1926. Here Carter built the house where he and his wife Willie Higgins Carter and their daughter, Bonnie Lee,lived for several years (DB 104, pg.109). In 1931 Alonzo Carter bought the lot between the Robert B. Waddle house and the McEwen house and built his second House (DB 105, pg.552). After living here for ten or more years, he sold this house on Oak, in 1943,to W.F. Canada, Jr and wife Malinda (DB 128, pg.453). After Malinda's death, W.F. Canada sold the house in 1945 to Joseph D. Summers and wife, Katherine (DB 142, pg.416). The Summers sold the property in 1951 to O.L. McIntosh and wife Grace (DB 198, pg.295) and they, in turn, sold it in 1955 to Ralph Shearer and wife Mildred, who have lived here since that time(DB 199, pg.189).

The first Carter house back of the parsonage, became the home of Judge B.J. Bethurum and wife Leila, in 1931, when they returned to Somerset from Lexington (DB 104, pg.458). Some twenty-five years later, after the death of the Bethurums, J.J. Bethurum Williams sold the house in 1956 to Thomas E. Ledridge and wife Frances (DB 204, pg.140). When they moved to Scott County twenty-five years later, the house became the property of their daughter Ann L. Eastham of Lexington (DB 408, pg.308). In 1988 she sold the property to Richard Lance Jones and wife, Jane Ross Jones(DB 472, pg.618) who live here now.

In 1914 the William A. Waddle house became the property of R.D. Stephens and wife, Ida (CD 4, pg.134) and in 1919 Stephens sold it to M.L. Gover and wife Mallie (DB 84, pg. 240). In 1928 the Govers sold the house to J.P. Todd who enlarged the house and added the big columns in front (DB 100, pg.120). Almost thirty years later, Todd's widow, Mary Griffin Todd, sold the property to Oris Meece and wife, Jackie, who have lived here since that time (DB 214, pg.293).

When Edwin Porch Morrow became the Governor of Kentucky in 1919 and moved to Frankfort, the Morrows sold their house to Mrs. Morrow's youngest brother, Stanley Waddle and his wife, Elsie Ramsey Waddle, sister of Robert B. Waddle's wife, Edna. In 1924 (DB 95, pg.111) Stanley Waddle sold the house to Margaret Beattie and her husband, Charles. After the Beattie family moved to Louisville, they sold the house to M.L. Gover in 1941 (DB 119, pg.611). Twenty-five years later, in 1966 (DB 270, pg. 79) the Gover heirs sold the property to D.S. McCart and wife Ernestine, who were, at that time, renters of an apartment in this house. The McCarts continue to make this their Home today.

In closing, it might be mentioned that O.H. Waddle's brother, James L. Waddle, who lived at the northwestern corner of Oak and Maple (DB 40, pg.344), also owned at one time or another several houses in this neighborhood including one on the south side of Oak Street, which he gave to his sister, Susan Tuttle, and her husband J.C. Tuttle, and the one at the southeastern corner of College and Oak. His brother, John H. Waddle, lived next to this house on College. Truly this was a Waddle neighborhood.

* Catherine Hail, formerly Catherine Harrison, widow of Silas M. Hail. was sixty-three years old when she bought the property at the southeast corner of Maple and Limestone in 1893 from Fred Curtis. The 1900 Census reveals that Catherine Hail, age 69, and her sister-in-law, Jennie, age 82, made their home together.

Catherine was the second wife of Silas M. Hail whom he married in 1854 after the death of his first wife, Polly Woodcock, in 1852. Catherine was twenty-five years younger than Silas and the same age as Melissa, the daughter of Silas and Polly.

In the 1870 Census one finds Silas M. Hail and wife Catherine and children Sally, Charles L., Henry M. and Oscar.

After the death of Catherine in 1920, her son Charles sold Catherine's house to J. Frank Barnett in 1923. The deed stated "Being same property conveyed to Catherine J. Hail, mother of party of the first part, and which descended by inheritance from said Catherine J. Hail to party of the first part, he being her only child and heir-at-law". According to record in Hail Family Bible, the other children mentioned above had died before this time.

Charles L. Hail 1858-1925 was the father of Henry S. Hail of Pulaski County and Edwin Porch Hail of Belgrade, Montana, as revealed in Deed Book 100, page 508.

Henry S. Hail 1888-1964 was the husband of Jennie Newell Hail 1888-1979. Jennie's mother, Amanda Gibson Newell, was the daughter of Andrew Gibson and Polly Zachary. This Polly, named for her aunt, Polly Woodcock Hail, was the daughter of Sarah Woodcock Zachary, first wife of Benjamin Zachary. Both Polly Woodcock Hail, who died in 1852 and Sarah Woodcock Zachary, who died in 1827 were buried in the Woodcock Graveyard across Kentucky Highway 39 from the present Pulaski County High School building.

See enclosure. These family members are somewhat confusing, and there is no direct information connecting to the William who married Mary Aker.

We hope that you will find this information helpful.

16. (X) Thank you for your letter. The marriage register for William Hail and Mary Aker dated 7 April 1826, lists "consent of mother Susannah Hail" and the father of the bride was given as "Johannes Aker." Will Book 2, Pulaski County, discloses the death of one William Hail, with an inventory and appraisement of his estate on April 20, 1821. The settlement of his estate on Feb. 15, 1827, lists the administrators of his estate as Susannah Hail and Christopher Hail. The answer to your question concerning the parentage of the William Hail marriage of 1826, is almost certainly William and Susannah Hail. *This family appears to have been originally from Bedford County, Va.

We hope that you will find this information helpful.

I do the research at the Putnam County Library, volunteering there on Tues. Afternoon each week. I do not find a burial of Shhuyler Hale in Bainbridge Cemetery.

Our birth Records gives James Wm. Hale b. 2 Sept 1872 son of Schuyler & Susan Oliver Hale

Female child b. 3 Mar 1885 to Schuyler & Susan Oliver Hale.

I found in our Cemetery Records:

Hartman Cemetery Franklin Township Putnam County

HAIL, Schuyler, b. 13 Oct 1845 d. 22May 1923.
NOTE Spelling!

HALE, Susan E. w/o W. S. d. 12 Dec 1885 Age 33y6m (23d.

HALE, Freddie Rudolph, s/o W.S. & S.E. d. 9 Oct 1889

Schuyler Hale, Pvt. Co. F 29th Reg. KY. also given in the cemetery record.
It is possible that there might be a death certificate in Putnam County, Health Office. It might give his parents names. You say he died in Wayne County, Indiana.

You might try writing to: Adjutant General,
National Guard
Boone National Guard Center
Frankfort, KY 40601
for his military records. Give them as much in as you know.such as birth date and place, death date and place, Wife's name, Rank, and unit with he served.

Hope some of this info will be of help to you.

You say he died in Wayne Co. but is buried here in Putnam Co., but his wife died in 1885 apparently here in Put. Co. So he may have requested to be brought back here for burial.

Dear Mr. Hale,

Enclosed are the complete military service records upon SCHUYLER HAIL'S Civil War service. The 29th Kentucky Infantry did not officially muster into service, thus all the recruits for this regiment were dispersed to other units. HAIL was mustered into the 2nd Kentucky Cavalry, and later re-enlisted in the 2nd Kentucky Veteran Volunteer Cavalry. Also included is a regimental history of this unit. If HAIL applied for a pension, his application will be on file in the National Archives (Washington, DC).

If I can be of any further assistance, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Brandon K. Slone

Dear Mrs. Nolan,

Received your letter & info on your Hail Family. Do wish I could be of help to you, but I've not worked on the Hail genealogy for 20 years. And only have my Hail family back to William Hail and Mary Akers.

But you have renewed my interest, so will probably start working on it again.

The fact is that you have helped me because I had no idea who my Wm Hail parents were & I do thank you for this help.

I'll send along my family sheet on Wm Williams & Margaret Hail. Maybe you'll want to add them to your records.

If I find anything in records I go through while I'm hunting for Hails, I'll certainly send them on to you.

Genology can be so time consuming and so interesting. But like you I want every thing down in black & white, with proof of everything.

So keep in touch and I'll do the same.
